

Doing Business in Mexico (with the Help of the Amparo Trial)

The Finest Means of Legal Defense

By Ignacio Pinto-Leon

Doing Business in Mexico (with the Help of the Amparo Trial)

Investors doing business in a foreign country need to find transparency and security in the legal system of the host country

Mexico offers both through different levels of legal protections. Amparo Trial is the finest, most powerful and sophisticated of such means

Doing Business in Mexico (with the Help of the Amparo Trial)

Amparo is a federal trial where a plaintiff – an individual or a corporation – challenges the constitutionality of a given act of the authority that violates its individual rights

All three branches of power are subject to the Amparo trial. Plaintiffs can attack the acts of the executive, the judiciary and even the legislative power

Doing Business in Mexico (with the Help of the Amparo Trial)

Federal courts hearing Amparo trials can issue a stay order. This order binds the defendant/authority to effectively cease and desist the execution of the act subject of the trial, to preserve the subject matter of the trial

Doing Business in Mexico (with the Help of the Amparo Trial)

Amparo trial is highly technical and requires specialized knowledge of qualified Abogados – legal professionals licensed to practice law in Mexico.

Where to Get Help

JurisMex Corp. is a U.S.-based company created to serve the legal needs in Mexican law of American, Mexican and Canadian individuals, corporations and law firms doing business in Mexico

For more information, e-mail us at info@jurismex.com, call us at 713.821.1756 or visit our website: www.JurisMex.com